introduction

This brochure is intended to provide you — the students, faculty and staff of Johnson & Wales University — with information and statistics on crime, crime prevention, fire incidents and fire safety on campus. The brochure describes how the campus security system works and how you can access this system in an emergency. It covers safety and security in student housing and academic and administrative buildings, the university’s policies on alcohol and drugs, and substance abuse prevention and education programs currently in place.

Working through Campus Safety & Security, the university makes every effort to prevent crime on campus. However, Johnson & Wales also recognizes the crucial role that individuals must play in protecting themselves and others from harm. The university encourages all students, faculty and staff to use the personal safety tips provided by Campus Safety & Security and to report immediately all crimes, suspicious activities or emergencies occurring on or off campus to Campus Safety & Security or to local police.

CAMPUS SAFETY & SECURITY

All department personnel are hired in compliance with the Rhode Island General Laws, Maintenance of Order on Campus, which mandates that “all private security personnel employed by public or private colleges and universities shall, as a condition of their employment, apply to the bureau of criminal identification of the state police for a nationwide criminal records check.”

All campus security personnel attend mandatory in-service training to keep up to date on regulations and to improve their skills, and all are certified in first aid and cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) through the American Red Cross.

Campus Safety & Security has developed highly cooperative relationships with federal, state and local police departments to help ensure prompt and efficient action in apprehending alleged criminals and preventing crime. Campus Safety & Security also actively participates in local emergency planning efforts toward disaster preparedness.

University security officers aid local police by responding to problems on town and city streets whenever Johnson & Wales students are involved. In addition, our campus crime prevention officers have developed relationships with local community police officers. The executive director also attends regularly scheduled meetings with local police leaders and area security directors.

The university does not have any officially recognized student organizations with off-campus locations.

Campus security officers do not carry firearms and have no arrest powers.

Campus security officers enforce university policies and procedures including the Student Code of Conduct on university premises.

The university does not have written agreements with local law enforcement agencies for the investigation of alleged criminal offenses.
REPORTING A CRIME OR OTHER EMERGENCY

The university adheres to the following policy regarding the reporting of crime:

Johnson & Wales University strongly encourages the prompt and accurate reporting of all criminal or suspicious activities occurring on or near campus. A student or employee who has witnessed any suspicious or apparent criminal action should immediately contact Campus Safety & Security at 598-1103 (24-hour assistance) or local police at 911, especially when the victim is unable to make such a report. Each employee or student designated as a campus security authority has been instructed to report all criminal or suspicious activity occurring on or near campus to Campus Safety & Security or local police.

Reports of criminal actions or other emergencies occurring on or near campus or in any other building or property owned or controlled by the university or by a recognized student organization should be made to any security officer at the Campus Safety & Security Operations Center or by dialing 1103 from a campus phone or 401-598-1103 from an outside phone. Criminal actions and other emergencies can also be reported to the local police or fire department by dialing 911 or 9911 from a university phone.

The Operations Center is located at 264 Weybosset St., Providence, RI 02903. The center is open seven days a week, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Reports can also be made to campus security officers patrolling on foot, bicycle or in clearly marked vehicles, or they can be registered with residence hall desk personnel who will, in turn, contact the center. Campus Safety & Security will immediately evaluate each report and take appropriate actions, such as calling an emergency medical team or reporting to local police. Campus Safety & Security will also be dispatched to the scene.

Information, signed or anonymous, on any criminal or safety issue can be mailed to Campus Safety & Security, Attn: Captain of Operations, 8 Abbott Park Place, Providence, RI 02903. A report can also be made on the Silent Witness form at www.jwu.edu/providence/safety.

The university cannot guarantee confidentiality in all cases. Statistics related to confidential and/or anonymous reports of crime that occur in the Clery reportable jurisdiction will be included in the Annual Security Report.

During the academic year, Campus Safety & Security maintains a substation located on the first floor of The Friedman Center on the Harborside Campus. The substation’s hours are Monday–Friday, 8 a.m.–5 p.m. Note: The substation is closed on holidays recognized by the university.

Johnson & Wales University is not required to include crimes reported only to a pastoral or professional counselor in the crime statistics published in this report. Students who seek personal counseling on campus are advised that if the student shares information regarding the commission of an offense that the university counselor considers to be a current threat to others, the counselor may release the information to appropriate authorities, including university administration, Campus Safety & Security, the local police, or the student’s parents or guardians. Students are also advised that the university will release information when required by law.

A Campus Safety & Security column is published in the Campus Herald. Crime prevention tips are also included in the column. The Campus Safety & Security office maintains a daily crime log listing the nature, date, time and general location of each crime and the disposition of the complaint, if known.

To keep the campus community informed on an ongoing basis, Campus Safety & Security will alert the community of certain crimes in a manner that is timely and will aid in the prevention of similar crimes. An alert will be issued and posted for all Clery Act crimes that are reported to campus security authorities, or are reported to the university by local police agencies, and are considered by the university to represent a serious or continuing threat to students, employees and our campus community. Crime alerts will withhold the names of the victims as confidential.
Crime alerts and safety tips will also be posted on Campus Safety & Security's website, www.jwu.edu/providence/safety. Links to all crime alerts are also located in the Crime and Community Alerts section of the jwuLink Web portal. Crime alerts will also be emailed to the campus community. Additionally, alerts are posted on designated Campus Safety & Security bulletin boards throughout campus. Crime alerts can be found under Crime & Community at www.jwu.edu/alerts/find-alerts/providence/.

SECURITY OF CAMPUS FACILITIES

Residence Halls. To protect students, staff and guests, campus security officers patrol the perimeters of on-campus and noncampus residence halls 24 hours a day on foot, bicycle and in marked vehicles. Additional patrols are assigned to problem areas as needed.

Residence halls are monitored 24 hours a day by residence directors, area coordinators, front desk managers, desk assistants, resident assistants and/or security personnel. All visitors will be logged in by front desk staff and both the visitor and the sponsoring resident must leave a picture ID at the desk while the visitor is in the hall. Security officers are posted at the front desk of all residence halls between the hours of midnight and 8 a.m. on all days students are in residence.

To further control access to residence halls, all halls have exit door alarms, closed-circuit television cameras/monitors and electronic card access door locks.

Harborside Village/Washington Apartments/Centennial House. One residential life resident assistant resides in each of the 12 Harborside Village buildings. Security officers patrol the exterior of these buildings as part of their 24-hour foot, bicycle and vehicle patrol responsibilities. Officers will enter these buildings to take reports and investigate circumstances as reported by students or residential life staff, or if a violation of the Student Code of Conduct is suspected by observations made by officers on patrol.

Access is restricted to residents of each building through the university’s electronic identification card system. All visitors and guests must make arrangements with a resident to gain access.

During school breaks and vacations, campus security officers continue to patrol and check all residential facilities.

Administrative and Academic Facilities. Access to academic and administrative buildings is primarily accomplished through the electronic card access control system.

Timely Maintenance for Security. Any maintenance problem affecting a residence hall, administration or classroom building is assigned a work order, prioritized for security issues.

Throughout the campus, outdoor lights, cameras and emergency phones are installed. University ID Card access readers are installed at building entrances on campus. All incoming and outgoing calls on the main security telephone line are digitally recorded to improve the department’s response efforts. Each of the foregoing systems and equipment is routinely checked for proper operation.

KEEPING THE UNIVERSITY COMMUNITY INFORMED

A major goal of the university is to keep students, faculty and staff informed about campus security procedures and to encourage them to act responsibly to ensure their own safety and the safety of others. All new students are instructed on how to report a crime or emergency, on the functions of Campus Safety & Security and on the consequences of possessing drugs, alcohol or other prohibited behavior both on or off campus as listed in the student handbook.

Campus Safety & Security Guide. Campus Safety & Security publishes the pamphlet “Campus Safety & Security: Providence Campus” for all incoming students, faculty and staff. The pamphlet explains the reporting of a crime, lists departmental services and emergency phone numbers, and provides tips on safety in the city and in residence halls.

Emergency Notification System to Enhance Emergency Preparedness. The safety of students, faculty and staff is a constant priority at Johnson & Wales University (JWU). The ability to quickly provide notice, accurate information and instructions with minimum delay during a situation is crucial. To accomplish this, JWU has selected Blackboard Connect, a multi-modal communication service that allows JWU campus leaders and security personnel to deliver time-sensitive voice mail or text message notifications to students, faculty and staff during unforeseen events or emergencies. The university also utilizes an external siren system on the Harborside Campus in the event of emergencies in the Port of Providence area or on the campus.

The systems complement our existing campus emergency response plans, which are continuously updated to be responsive to both man-made and natural disasters. University and campus leaders have integrated our computer systems with the system. The system is only used during emergencies (and for related tests.) Additional information about our Emergency Notification System is available on our jwuAlerts page at www.jwu.edu/alerts/find-alerts/providence/.

Missing Student Policy. Any person who believes a JWU student is missing should immediately report the situation to Campus Safety & Security or to any member of the JWU residential life staff.

In the event another university office or employee other than a member of Campus Safety & Security receives a report of a missing student, that person shall immediately notify Campus Safety & Security of the report received.

Upon receipt of a missing student notification, Campus Safety & Security will make a determination of when to implement missing student procedures based on whether there are unusual or suspicious circumstances surrounding the student’s absence and/or whether the student has been absent from campus without explanation for more than 24 hours.

Official Notification Procedures. Campus Safety & Security together with other authorized JWU officials will, after the student has been missing for 24 hours or sooner if they deem it advisable to do so based upon the circumstances presented, initiate official notification procedures according to the Missing Student Response Policy then in place. If no such policy is in place, Campus Safety & Security shall notify local police and/or other local law enforcement and shall also contact the following in the order they deem advisable:

- The missing student’s confidential contact, if any (see below for information on registering a confidential contact)
- The parent(s) or legal guardian as well as any other designated contact person of any missing unemancipated student or student under the age of 18
- The regular emergency contact provided to Health Services by the student. Once the student has been located, further notifications will not be made.

Confidential Contact Option for Resident Students. A confidential contact is someone who, in addition to the student’s regular emergency contact, the student would like JWU to contact if the student is missing.

Only Campus Safety & Security and a limited number of other authorized JWU officials will have access to the identity of a student’s confidential contact in the event a student is missing. JWU will not disclose the identity of a confidential contact to anyone else (other than local law enforcement if needed for the investigation of the student’s disappearance).

Only students who live in a university residential building have the option of registering a confidential contact.

Confidential contacts may be registered by email from a student’s JWU-issued email address. Instructions for registering a confidential contact can be found at www.jwu.edu/providence/safety. Any student who would like to receive assistance concerning the registration of his or her confidential contact information may contact Campus Safety & Security.

Statement of Policy Regarding Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures

Johnson & Wales University has adopted a University Emergency Management Plan as a guide for emergency management and coordination of emergency operations. This Statement of Policy describes the following procedures to facilitate notification and evacuation responses in an emergency:

- The procedures to notify the campus community upon confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees occurring on campus and/or at a non-campus residential building;
- The process that JWU will use to confirm that there is a significant emergency and to determine whether to initiate the notification system, who to notify, and the content of the notification;
- A list of the titles of the JWU employees responsible for carrying out the above process;
- Procedures for disseminating emergency information to the larger community;
- JWU’s procedures to test the emergency response and evacuation procedures; and
- Where to obtain JWU’s emergency response and evacuation procedures.

Notification Procedures in the Event of Significant Emergencies or Dangerous Situations. Pursuant to the University Emergency Management Plan, JWU will, without delay, taking into account the safety of the community, immediately notify the appropriate campus community upon confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees occurring on campus unless the notification will, in the professional judgment of responsible authorities, compromise efforts to assist victims or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

Each campus has implemented an emergency notification system, called Blackboard Connect, that can send notices via voice messages and text messages to student cell or home numbers and employee cell or office phone numbers. This system is used in order for JWU to quickly provide notice and accurate information and instructions to the university community during an unforeseen event or emergency. In order for the university to communicate effectively and in a timely manner, including in emergency situations, all students are required to manage and update, via jwuLink, their permanent and on-campus/commuter addresses and telephone contact information (including cellphone numbers) so that they are current at all times (under the Grades & Tools tab > find Grades & Records > click the “update addresses and phones”). Employees should visit the Help Desk website, http://helpdesk.jwu.edu/facstaff_acctupdate.htm to update office phone numbers. To update home or cellphone numbers, employees should email connected.pvd@jwu.edu (Providence Campus), connected.mia@jwu.edu (North Miami Campus), connected.den@jwu.edu (Denver Campus) or charlotteblackboardconnect@jwu.edu (Charlotte Campus), as applicable. Other forms of communication may be used to relay emergency messages including, but not limited to, email, voice mail and campus hotlines.

Process to Confirm that There is a Significant Emergency and Initiate the Emergency Notification System. JWU will observe the following process to determine whether there is a significant emergency and whether to initiate the system, and if so, who to notify and the content of the notification. Upon discovery or report of a possible emergency, the situation will be assessed by the ranking Campus Safety & Security officer to determine:

- Type of crime, if situation is a criminal incident.
- The hazards involved, including whether there is an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees occurring on campus.
- The magnitude of the problem.
- The resources threatened.
- Whether access to a particular area must be restricted to first responders from local/area emergency service providers or evacuation of a building is required.

The ranking Campus Safety & Security officer and the chair of the Crisis Management Team will determine if it is appropriate to activate the University Emergency Management Plan and whether to make an emergency notification, who to notify, and the content of the notification. In addition, they will also determine whether a notification will, in their professional judgment or in consultation with appropriate police, fire, or other federal, state, and local emergency services personnel, compromise efforts to assist victims or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency. Follow-up notifications will continue as the situation progresses until the immediate threat is resolved.

Titles of JWU Employees Responsible for Carrying Out the Emergency Notification Process. The following JWU employees (or their designees) have primary responsibility for determining whether there is an emergency requiring a notification and/or carrying out the notification process:

• The chief security officer
• The director, Campus Safety & Security (Providence Campus)
• The senior vice president of administration
• The director of communications & media relations
• The director of emergency management

Procedures for Disseminating Emergency Information to Parents/Guardians and the Larger Community. JWU will liaise with local, state and federal emergency services personnel and with regulatory agencies, as applicable, during an emergency.

Procedures to Test Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures. JWU will test its emergency response and evacuation procedures on at least an annual basis, through regularly scheduled drills, exercises and appropriate follow-through activities designed for the assessment and evaluation of emergency plans and capabilities, including by publicizing its procedures in conjunction with at least one test per calendar year and documenting a description of each test as well as the date and time of the test and whether it was announced or unannounced. JWU will conduct drills to assess its emergency plans and procedures, to determine the readiness of emergency responders for resolving questions of coordination and clarifying roles and responsibilities, and to promote awareness of potential hazards. Whenever feasible, observers from outside agencies will be present throughout the drill to analyze and evaluate each component of the response and to make recommendations as needed.

Tabletop exercises will be conducted periodically with various response team members as a technique for evaluating specific aspects of the Emergency Response Plan. These exercises will be developed and coordinated by the campus Crisis Management Team and will seek to include external community members and government emergency service providers.

Where to Obtain Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures. Students and employees may access the University Emergency Management Plan and procedures for their campus on Public Folders under All Public Folders>_Emergency Procedures> Providence Campus>JWU Emergency Plan and Procedures. We urge you to familiarize yourself with the emergency and evacuation procedures for your campus. Emergency response and evacuation procedures are also available on the jwuAlerts page at www.jwu.edu/alerts/find-alerts/providence/.

See the emergency quick reference procedures which are published at the end of the Annual Security Report. The quick reference procedures are also posted throughout campus.

CAMPUS SEX CRIMES PREVENTION ACT (CSCPA)

The CSCPA provisions appear in section 121 of the Adam Walsh Child Protection and 14071(j)]. As provided in subsection (j), any person required to register under a state sex offender registration program must notify the state concerning each institution of higher education in the state at which the person is a student or works, and of each change in enrollment or employment status of the person at such an institution.

State procedures must also ensure that information concerning a registrant enrolled or working at an institution of higher education is promptly made available to a law enforcement agency having jurisdiction where the institution is located, and entered into the appropriate state records or data system. In accordance with requirements of the CSCPA, information concerning registered sex offenders employed, enrolled as a student, or carrying on a vocation at this institution can be obtained, to the extent permitted by law, by contacting the Sex Offenders Community Notification Unit within the Rhode Island Parole Board at 401-462-0905, or online at www.paroleboard.ri.gov. In Massachusetts contact the Sex Offender Registration Board at 978-740-6400, or online at www.mass.gov/eopss/agencies/sorb.

CRIME PREVENTION

Because Johnson & Wales believes crime prevention begins with awareness, the university takes every opportunity to heighten that awareness. A Community Outreach/ Crime Prevention Unit has been established within Campus Safety & Security to help students, faculty and staff understand the potential hazards of campus life. New student orientations cover topics such as crime prevention, street smarts, maximizing safety in the city, sexual assault education, residence hall safety and alcohol/substance abuse. Alcohol.edu and Haven (sexual violence education) are two of the programs provided by the university to incoming students.

Programs: Crime prevention tips are published on each crime alert. Campus Safety & Security programs address topics such as laptop security, property protection, residence hall security, street smarts, travel safety and identity theft. These programs are conducted on a monthly basis during the academic year. Certain safety programs are held on a more frequent basis at the beginning of each academic year. An example of one of the programs is 360° Stay Safe™ which is a comprehensive program with personal safety information for students. Dates and times for the programs are published on the Campus Safety & Security website, www.jwu.edu/providence/safety. Crime prevention programs and tips are also distributed to the campus via social media.

To teach students how to prevent all types of sexual assault, including acquaintance rape, educational programs are held at various venues on campus including residence halls. These programs are sponsored by the resident assistants and other student affairs staff. Johnson & Wales on-campus counselors, the Gender Equity Center, Health Education, representatives from Day One (the Sexual Assault & Trauma Resource Center of Rhode Island), and representatives from Planned Parenthood have participated in these programs. In addition, the university annually holds a Good Life Exposition (formally called the Health & Wellness Fair). At the event, valuable crime prevention, bystander intervention and sexual assault awareness information is available for the campus community.

Project ID: As a practical approach to crime (theft) prevention, Campus Safety & Security will assist students with engraving valuables such as DVD players, laptops, etc. with a recognized identification code free of charge.

Silent Witness: The Campus Safety & Security crime prevention initiative, “Silent Witness,” was implemented for the purpose of providing our students a means to convey safety and security concerns with anonymity. We continue to emphasize the importance of direct reporting incidents to members of Campus Safety & Security because the chances for successful mitigation and non-reoccurrence are far greater. See www.jwu.edu/providence/safety for more information.

Safe Walk is a Campus Safety & Security service program. This student escort service is available in the immediate area surrounding the Downcity Campus from 6 p.m.–midnight, every class day beginning in September and running until Commencement in May.

JWU Ride is a transportation program developed through the collaborative efforts of Campus Safety & Security, Student Transportation and Student Affairs. This service is available nightly from 11 p.m.–3 a.m. to students who, for unforeseen circumstances, are without transportation and the travel distance is beyond the immediate area of campus at a time or place where bus transportation is not available.
Blue Light Phones: Blue light emergency phones have been installed on the Downcity and Harborside campuses.

JWUnorm is a social norming program that reinforces positive health behaviors, promotes healthy choices and educates students on risks, consequences and protective factors related to substance use. JWUnorm also educates students on how to recognize, intervene and direct someone experiencing a substance related emergency to the appropriate on and off campus resources.

AlcoholEdu is an online, non-opinionated, science-based alcohol abuse prevention course that: motivates behavior change, resets unrealistic expectations, links student choices to academic and personal success and helps students practice healthier and safer decision-making. Whether or not students drink alcohol, AlcoholEdu for College will empower students to make well-informed decisions about alcohol and help student’s better cope with the drinking behavior of peers.

Haven is an online learning platform that addresses the critical issues of sexual assault, relationship violence, and stalking. Haven is an interactive module that encourages students to reflect on their personal values and expectations in relationships as a foundation for personal engagement. The program’s primary focus is to promote healthy relationships based on positive communication and respect. Haven demonstrates for students the warning signs of abuse, and situations that may be challenging or confusing regarding consent in their own relationships and those of others.

Student Health 101 is a monthly electronic magazine that provides relevant health and wellness information to students. Topics covered include: sexual health and responsibility, sexual assault prevention, alcohol and other drugs, body image, sleep habits, mental health, study skills, environmental health, safety, stress management, money management and more.

STUDENT SEXUAL ASSAULT AND RELATIONSHIP VIOLENCE POLICY — PROVIDENCE CAMPUS

Johnson & Wales University prohibits sexual assault and relationship violence, which may include dating violence, domestic violence, stalking and sexual exploitation. These offenses constitute violations of university policy, including the Prohibited Discrimination and Harassment (including Sexual Harassment) Policy and the Student Code of Conduct. These offenses can also constitute violations of State and Federal Laws.

The university provides proceedings and resources for community members affected by sexual assault and relationship violence (see Getting Help), and offers programming designed to educate the community and prevent the occurrence of such offenses (see Education and Prevention).

Definitions

Dating violence means violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the reporting party’s statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. Dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or threat of such abuse. Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.

Domestic violence means crimes of violence committed
• by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim;
• by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common;
• by a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the victim as a spouse or intimate partner;
• by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred; or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.

Sexual assault means any sexual act directed against another person, by force, threat of force, coercion or without consent, including instances where the person is incapable of giving consent. Sexual assault includes rape, fondling, incest and statutory rape.

Fondling means the touching (with a hand or any other part of the body) of another person's clothed or unclothed sex organs, breasts, groin, buttocks or anus for the purpose of sexual arousal, sexual gratification or abuse, without consent of the person, including instances where the person is incapable of giving consent. Fondling also includes being forced to touch (with a hand or any other part of the body) another person's clothed or unclothed sex organs, breasts, groin, buttocks or anus, without consent, including instances where the person is incapable of giving consent.

Consent means conduct that signifies through words or behaviors that the parties have indicated agreement to engage in sexual activity.

- Past consent does not imply future consent.
- Silence or absence of resistance, by itself, does not imply consent.
- Consent to engage in sexual activity with one person does not imply consent to engage in sexual activity with another.
- Consent can be withdrawn at any time.
- Coercion, force or threat of force invalidates consent.

Coercion means express or implied threats of any harm that would place a reasonable individual in fear of immediate or future harm and that is employed to make someone engage in sexual activity.

Force means the actual use or threat of physical violence that is employed to make someone engage in sexual acts.

Incapable of giving consent means that because of the person's age or because of the person's temporary or permanent mental incapacity they cannot give intelligent, knowing and voluntary consent.

Incest means sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.

Rape means the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person without consent, including instances where the person is incapable of giving consent.

Statutory rape means sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

Sexual exploitation means taking sexual advantage of another individual's nudity or sexuality without consent and includes

- causing, or attempting to cause, the incapacitation of another person in order to make that person vulnerable to sexual acts;
- recording or photographing of private sexual activity and/or an individual's intimate parts (including genitalia, groin, breasts or buttocks);
- dissemination, streaming or posting of recordings, photos or other images of an individual's sexual acts and/or intimate parts (including genitalia, groin, breasts or buttocks);
- voyeurism (watching or taking pictures, videos or audio recordings of another person engaging in sexual acts);
- allowing third parties to observe private sexual acts;
- knowingly or recklessly exposing another person to a significant risk of sexually transmitted infection or virus; and/or
- exposing one's genitals to another individual.

Stalking means a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to
• fear for the person’s safety or the safety of others; or
• suffer substantial emotional distress.

Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly or through third parties, by any action, method, device or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person’s property.

Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim.

Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

If there is reason to believe that Johnson & Wales University’s rules prohibiting sexual assault and relationship violence have been violated, either on or off campus, the administration may pursue disciplinary action through the university’s Conduct Review Process, Human Resources & Payroll, and/or through any other available proceedings.

In considering these offenses, the university will, if required by law, refer to the laws of Rhode Island, Florida, Colorado, North Carolina and/or Massachusetts.

EDUCATION AND PREVENTION
Johnson & Wales University takes a proactive stance to educate its community regarding issues of sexual assault and relationship violence, including retaliation, and methods of prevention.

Johnson & Wales University’s education and prevention programming includes programs, initiatives, strategies and campaigns intended to address sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking. These programs are both in-person and online. In addition, the programs are a mix of guest speakers, university staff members, externally-created programs and university-created programs.

For students, education about sexual assault and relationship violence awareness and prevention begins at new student orientation, where new students and their parents participate in sessions dedicated to illustrating Johnson & Wales University’s stance against sexual assault and relationship violence. New student orientation staff members are trained to handle issues of sexual violence and relationship violence and participate in programming designed to help students understand university expectations and policy; the intersection between alcohol, sexual assault and relationship violence; and ways to reduce the risk of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking. As part of the education on risk reduction, programming explores options designed to decrease perpetration and bystander inaction, and to increase empowerment for victims to promote safety and help individuals and communities address conditions that facilitate violence.

Students also learn about safe and effective forms of bystander intervention to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence or stalking. Bystander intervention means safe and positive options that may be carried out by an individual or individuals that proactively promote safe and respectful interactions before the precursors to harm are ever witnessed. Bystander intervention includes recognizing situations of potential harm, understanding institutional structures and cultural conditions that facilitate violence, overcoming barriers to intervening, identifying safe and effective intervention options, and taking action to intervene. Examples of bystander intervention include
• walking someone home
• distracting the parties by engaging in conversation with them
• involving others, including the friends of the parties
• inviting one of the parties to go get a glass of water or redirect their attention
• calling Campus Safety & Security
• providing someone with information on university policies and resources, including providing them with a copy of this Sexual Assault and Relationship Violence Policy.

To promote a safe and engaged community, the university addresses bystander behavior by participating in Green Dot as a core component of its comprehensive violence prevention efforts. Each campus has Green Dot certified staff member(s). These individuals promote safe and effective bystander intervention through presentations and training. Each term, community members have the opportunity to participate in an eight-hour bystander intervention training program.

Prevention and education efforts continue throughout the year and are supported by multiple departments such as Student Involvement & Leadership (including student clubs and organizations and fraternities and sororities), Residential Life and Athletics. These efforts are targeted at awareness raising, self-defense, alcohol use, definition of consent, healthy sexuality and relationships, risk reduction and bystander behavior. The university provides education through its “Consent is….” campaign, which educates students about the university's policies related to sexual assault; the definition of consent; the intersection between alcohol, sexual assault and relationship violence; where to obtain resources; and where to report violations. Literature addressing issues of sexual assault and relationship violence is available from multiple departments including Campus Safety & Security, Counseling Services, Health Services, Health Education, the Gender Equity Center, Student Involvement & Leadership, Athletics, Residential Life and the Title IX Coordinator.

Many of the educational programs and events offered to students are open to all community members, and employees have the opportunity to participate in a variety of educational programs. In addition, employees are offered programming on the Prohibited Discrimination and Harassment (including Sexual Harassment) Policy, and the Sexual Assault and Relationship Violence Policy. These programs inform employees of the university's stance against sexual assault and relationship violence and the university's prohibition against retaliation.

For information regarding sexual assault and relationship violence awareness and prevention programming, contact the Title IX Coordinator or the director of the Gender Equity Center. For more information about Green Dot contact the director of the Gender Equity Center. Upcoming programs can also be found on jwuLink and the student calendar.

STEPS TO FOLLOW IF AN OFFENSE OCCURS

If you believe you are the victim of sexual assault or relationship violence (including dating violence, domestic violence, stalking or sexual exploitation), you are encouraged to take the following steps:

1. Go to a safe place.
2. You may seek medical attention. Immediate medical attention is strongly encouraged for any possible injuries. Medical attention is critical so that any injuries (including internal injuries) or infections which may have resulted from the offense can be treated. Getting an exam does not mean that you have to press charges; however, a medical exam will help to preserve evidence if you should choose to press charges or seek a protective order at some point.

Time sensitive steps: Some actions are more effective or only may be taken within a few days after a sexual offense. You may wish to consult with medical personnel quickly...
regarding these items:

- Preventative treatments for pregnancy and sexually transmitted infections
- Evidence collection
- Toxicology testing if there are signs that drugs or alcohol may have facilitated the assault/violence

Individuals of any gender can be victims of sexual assault or relationship violence. JWU encourages victims to go to the appropriate hospitals for their campus listed in Getting Help.

3. Consider your reporting options. Your options include

- reporting the offense to law enforcement authorities by dialing 911 or contacting the appropriate police at the numbers listed in Getting Help. Campus authorities will assist you with notifying law enforcement authorities, if desired; and/or
- filing a disciplinary complaint and reporting the offense to the university for investigation by Campus Safety & Security (see Getting Help for your campus information);
- reporting the offense directly to Campus Safety & Security;
- reporting the offense confidentially to Campus Safety & Security (silent witness, online only);
- reporting the offense to a Residential Life staff member (such as your R.A. or R.D.);
- reporting the offense to the university’s Title IX coordinator, deputy Title IX coordinators or nondiscrimination campus liaisons; and/or
- reporting the offense to any of the other organizations or departments listed in Getting Help.

Johnson & Wales University strongly urges students to report criminal offenses to local police and Campus Safety & Security so that the university can take appropriate measures to provide help to the victim and prevent future crimes. However, you have the right not to report the matter.

4. Consider steps to preserve and record evidence. If you wish to press charges or seek a protective order, it is important to preserve and record evidence, including recording a description of the perpetrator (including type of clothing, race, age, height, weight, hair color, eye color, distinguishing marks, etc.), details of events, where events occurred and the direction of travel of any vehicle involved. Best practices to preserve evidence with respect to sexual offenses include seeking medical attention shortly after the event and

- avoid washing anything (including your hands, mouth and face)
- avoid washing or combing your hair
- avoid showering, going to the bathroom, brushing your teeth, eating, drinking, douching or changing your clothes. It is recommended that you bring an extra set of clothes with you to the hospital.

You may also consider preserving other relevant information such as communications from the perpetrator (i.e., social media posts, emails, texts or other materials). If you do change or have access to other materials like sheets or blankets present during the assault/violence, those materials can be brought to the hospital or given to law enforcement for evidence collection. Please use a paper bag, not plastic bag, if you choose to transport any of these materials on your own.

5. You may seek free confidential counseling services. You can obtain free confidential counseling assistance whether or not you file a report:

- Contact Counseling Services directly (see Getting Help for your campus information as well as assistance available in the community)
- Without disclosing any details of the incident, ask a Residential Life staff member or Campus Safety & Security to contact the on-call counselor.
Campus Safety & Security will also provide you with written information about university counseling resources.

6. You may seek assistance regarding obtaining interim or protective measures at the university, including no contact orders and changes to university academic, living, student financial aid, visa and immigration, working, and transportation situations, regardless of whether you choose to report the crime to local law enforcement. Campus Safety & Security will provide you with written information about university and community resources for changing situations or addressing needs.

7. You may also wish to create a safety plan with the assistance of people and organizations listed as offering this service under Getting Help.

8. You may seek an order of protection, a court-ordered no contact order, a restraining order or similar lawful orders from a court. Please note that the local police are responsible for the enforcement of these items and not Campus Safety & Security, but Campus Safety & Security will provide you with assistance. When an allegation of sexual assault or relationship violence is made against a student, that student will receive a university issued “no contact” order, which will remain in effect until at least the Conduct Review Process has been completed.

9. You may seek additional help, counseling, advocacy, legal assistance and other assistance. People and organizations offering these services are listed under Getting Help.

REPORTING OFFENSES TO THE UNIVERSITY

Johnson & Wales University strives to be supportive and accommodating for all victims of sexual assault and relationship violence. University representatives will make every effort to help in these ways:

1. We will meet with you privately at a place of your choice on campus to take a statement, explain your options and provide you with a written list of rights and resources.

2. We will treat information that you share with the highest level of discretion.

3. CONFIDENTIALITY: We will do our best to honor your request to maintain confidentiality, provided your request does not interfere with our obligation to provide a safe, non-discriminatory environment for all students.
   • The university’s crime log will not include identifying information about the complainant to the extent permissible by law.
   • Please be advised that if we honor a request to maintain confidentiality, our ability to meaningfully investigate the incident and pursue disciplinary action against the respondent may be limited.
   • Any accommodations or protective measures provided to you will be kept confidential, to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality will not impair the ability of the university to provide the accommodation or protective measures.
   • If we cannot honor your request to maintain confidentiality, we will inform you and, to the extent possible, only share information with people responsible for handling our response to the incident.

4. We will not prejudge you.

5. We will treat you and your particular situation with courtesy, sensitivity, dignity, understanding and professionalism.

6. If you feel more comfortable talking with either a counselor or representative of a specific gender, we will do our best to accommodate your request.

7. We will assist you in arranging for any hospital treatment or medical needs.

8. We can assist you in privately contacting local law enforcement officials, counseling, Campus Safety & Security, advising and other available resources, both on campus and in the community as set forth in Getting Help.

9. We will fully investigate your report with respect and discretion.

10. We will continue to be available for you — to answer your questions, explain the systems and processes involved, and be willing listeners.

11. We will consider your report seriously, without bias based on a protected category.

12. We will provide written notification of rights and options, including interim and protective measures.

GETTING HELP

After a sexual assault or an incident of dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, sexual exploitation and/or retaliation, there are many options. Understanding and choosing between these options can feel confusing and overwhelming. You are not alone.

Information, support and resources are available on and off-campus to help students. The university provides a list of organizations and departments by campus that offer or arrange for immediate support and response, including arrangements for emergency services, if needed; transportation to medical resources; contact with local authorities; information regarding criminal and civil proceedings and/or the university’s Conduct Review Process or Human Resources procedures, as appropriate; advocacy services; referrals/advice about university and community counseling services; and assistance with personal safety concerns.

Many of these resources are available to respondents as well. Community members are encouraged to seek assistance and locate resources that are right for them.

CRIMINAL AND DISCIPLINARY ACTION:
WHAT ACTION MAY BE TAKEN

1. Criminal Prosecution: If you choose to pursue criminal prosecution through the courts, the incident should be reported to the police. Remember, a police report does not require a victim to prosecute and campus personnel are available to assist you when notifying the police. Please see Getting Help for sources of assistance for victims when moving through the prosecution process.

2. University Disciplinary Action: If you choose to report the matter to the university, the incident should be reported to Campus Safety & Security. Please see Getting Help for contacting Campus Safety & Security. Sexual assault and relationship violence (including dating violence, domestic violence, stalking and sexual exploitation) are violations of the university’s Sexual Assault and Relationship Violence Policy, the Prohibited Discrimination and Harassment (including Sexual Harassment) Policy, the Student Code of Conduct, as well as state and federal law, including Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX). Sexual assault, sexual harassment and relationship violence alleged to have been committed by students are addressed through the university’s Conduct Review Process and, as applicable, in accordance with Title IX and relevant state and federal law. Please see the Conduct Review Process for more information about the rights of parties related to complaints of sexual assault and relationship violence. Possible sanctions for a violation of the Student Code of Conduct regarding sexual assault and relationship violence are set forth in Sanctions.

When any one of the options above is pursued, you do not forfeit your right to pursue the remaining options. Compliance with the items listed above does not constitute a violation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (20 U.S.C. 1232g).

CONDUCT REVIEW PROCESS
The Johnson & Wales Conduct Review Process, like the Student Code of Conduct, is designed to help the university maintain a safe, healthy and positive environment for living, learning and working, where individuals act lawfully and in compliance with university policies and rules, and act with honesty, integrity, civility and respect for themselves and others and for the university community and the communities in which we live. The Conduct Review Process is used to support and enforce the Student Code of Conduct by providing procedures for determining whether a student is responsible or not responsible for a violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

The university administers the Conduct Review Process in good faith, making every reasonable effort to be fair to all involved. Students have the right to participate in the Conduct Review Process without having past student conduct violations discussed or used when a decision of responsibility is being made concerning a current alleged violation; however, past violations may be considered when determining a sanction for an individual found to be responsible for a violation of the Student Code of Conduct. All students have the obligation to participate in the Conduct Review Process, as a witness or otherwise, when asked by a university representative.

Student Conduct generally follows the procedures under JWU Communications with Students whenever contact with students is necessary.

The university’s Conduct Review Process does not serve as an extension of or replacement for the local, state or federal civil or criminal court system. In addition, the outcome of civil or criminal proceedings concerning a violation will not control or be binding on the outcome of the Conduct Review Process for the same violation.

All students should be aware that it is the policy of the university to cooperate with local, state and federal law enforcement authorities in the investigation of crime. The university will not provide a sanctuary against criminal prosecution.

HOW THE CONDUCT REVIEW PROCESS WORKS
Reports of Violations and Notification
Any individual who witnesses or becomes aware of an alleged violation of the Student Code of Conduct should report the violation to Campus Safety & Security, any member of the Residential Life staff, the dean of students or Student Conduct. Once an alleged violation is reported, an incident report will be prepared by Campus Safety & Security (or by a faculty member when appropriate) describing the nature and circumstances of the incident and the parties involved. Campus Safety & Security may conduct further investigation if additional or supplemental information is needed. All incident reports are reviewed in Student Conduct and those that warrant action are then referred for either an educational conversation or a hearing, depending upon the nature of the alleged violation.

There are two types of hearings at Johnson & Wales: administrative hearings and panel hearings. Administrative hearings are held before a single hearing officer from Residential Life or Student Conduct, depending on the nature of the violation. Panel hearings are conducted in front of a panel made up of trained faculty and staff. In both cases, the role of the hearing officer or panel is to consider information provided from the investigation, from the respondent and, to the extent necessary, from any complainants or witnesses, in order to make a finding of “responsible” or “not responsible.” More serious violations that may result in a sanction of dismissal or suspension, and violations of academic integrity, are referred to a panel hearing, while less serious violations are referred for an administrative hearing.

When an incident report is referred for a hearing, the student will receive a notification describing the alleged violation and indicating the time and place for the hearing or pre-hearing conference. Students have the right to access their education records under certain conditions (see Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act for university policies on access to and release of student records).

Student Conduct will consult the student’s academic schedule prior to scheduling any conferences or hearings. Any unexcused failure to attend a hearing or conference will result in the hearing being held in the student’s absence, at which the hearing officer or panel will not have heard the student’s side of the story. If there is a legitimate need to reschedule a hearing or conference, the student must contact the hearing officer as early as possible before the scheduled date to request rescheduling.

HEARING PROCEDURES
A student may bring any relevant materials and witnesses with personal, relevant knowledge of the incident to the hearing. A student may also bring an advisor. Advisors may attend the hearing with the student, but cannot participate in any manner. Other than witnesses and advisors, other people may not attend the hearing with the student.

At a pre-hearing conference (for panel hearings) or before the hearing gets underway (for administrative hearings), the student may be asked whether the student wishes to waive the hearing by acknowledging responsibility. If the student acknowledges responsibility, sanctions will be imposed and the student will not be entitled to an appeal. If the student does not acknowledge responsibility, the hearing will proceed and the hearing officer or panel will

1. Outline the process
2. Review the incident report and/or allegations, and any supplemental information
3. Hear any statements relating to the incident
4. Hear or review the statements of witnesses with personal, relevant knowledge of the incident (but other witnesses, such as character witnesses, will not be allowed to attend or be heard)
5. Hear or review the statements of other relevant witnesses (and where confidentiality is a consideration, the identity of such witnesses will not be disclosed to the student)
6. Either defer the decision or render a decision of responsible or not responsible. Hearing officers and panels use the “more likely than not” standard to evaluate alleged violations
7. If the student is found responsible, recommend one or more sanctions to the director of student conduct

The director of student conduct will review the recommendation and make a final determination of appropriate sanction(s) (taking into consideration prior conduct violations). The student will receive a final written decision, which will set forth the final result and the sanction(s) imposed. The written decision will include information regarding the appeal process and the deadline for filing an appeal.

*A student who acknowledges responsibility is not entitled to an appeal.

APPEAL
The decision of the hearing officer (for administrative hearings) or the panel (for panel hearings) is final unless it can be demonstrated that one of the following has occurred:

1. Relevant, new information has come to light since the decision was made, or
2. The Conduct Review Process, as outlined, was not followed.

To request an appeal, a student must submit a request in writing to Student Conduct. The request must be submitted within three business days after the date of notification of the outcome of the hearing and must state clearly the basis for the appeal. The appeal will be reviewed upon receipt, and a decision concerning the appeal will be available within a reasonable time. The decision of the appeal officer will be final. The student will receive a final written decision from the appeal officer, which will set forth the outcome of the appeal.
RIGHTS OF THE COMPLAINANT AND RESPONDENT (THE “PARTIES”) FOR COMPLAINTS OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT, SEXUAL ASSAULT, SEXUAL EXPLOITATION, DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND STALKING

For complaints of sexual harassment, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking, the Parties will have the following rights in connection with the Conduct Review Process:

• The right to an investigation and resolution that is prompt, fair and impartial from the initial investigation to the final result as required by applicable law
• The right to a hearing conducted by unbiased university officials who receive annual training on issues related to sexual harassment, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking and how to conduct an investigation
• The right to a hearing process that protects the safety of the Parties and promotes accountability. Hearing officers and panels use the “more likely than not” standard to evaluate alleged violations
• The right to present relevant materials and witnesses with personal, relevant knowledge of the incident as outlined above
• The right to be accompanied to the hearing and any related meeting by an advisor of their choice. The advisor may accompany the student, but may not participate in any manner
• The right to be informed in writing of the outcome of the hearing and any appeal, including when such results become final. This includes disclosure to the Parties of any sanction imposed that pertains to a sex offense and any sanction imposed that directly relates to the Complainant with respect to other alleged sexual harassment violations. The Parties do not need to submit a request for such information.
• The right to request an appeal as outlined above under “Appeal.” A student who acknowledges responsibility will not be entitled to an appeal.

The university will take steps to prevent the recurrence of any harassment, correct any discriminatory effects on the complainant and others, and implement protective or interim measures (such as no contact orders, room relocations, classroom relocations, interim suspensions, etc.) as requested and as required by law. The university will complete the Conduct Review Process within a reasonably prompt time frame, usually within sixty days, but will allow for the extension of time frames for good cause with written notice to the Complainant and Respondent of the delay and the reason for the delay.

Retaliation, including intimidation, threats, coercion or discrimination, against any individual who has made a good faith complaint, or who has participated in the Conduct Review Process, is unlawful and in violation of university policy. Anyone found to have engaged in retaliation will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal or termination from the university.

• 401-598-2885 (Providence Campus)

SANCTIONS FOR INDIVIDUALS (STUDENTS)

If a student is found responsible for a violation of the Student Code of Conduct, the student will be given one or more sanctions. Sanctions are designed to help prevent future Student Code of Conduct violations, to educate students on appropriate behavior required to succeed in the workplace and live in society, and where appropriate, to remedy any damage done.

University Dismissal
Permanent dismissal from the university (noted in the student’s education records), which prohibits the student from attending the university (at any campus or learning site) or any university events and from entering or being present without permission on any property of the university. A student who is dismissed from the university will still be responsible for certain tuition and housing charges, subject to any applicable refund policy.

University Suspension
A temporary suspension from the university, which prohibits the student from attending the university (at any campus or learning site) or any university events and from entering or being present without permission on any property of the university. During a university suspension, a Student Conduct Hold is placed on the student’s academic record, which prevents the student from registering for classes and/or graduating. Requests for reinstatement after a university suspension will not be granted until all conditions of the suspension have been met and all other sanctions have been completed. As with dismissal, a student who is suspended from the university will still be responsible for certain tuition and housing charges, subject to any applicable refund policy. When a student returns from suspension, the student will be placed on conduct probation for a minimum of two terms. In certain instances, a student may be suspended until the complainant graduates.

Dismissal from Housing
Permanent dismissal from university housing, which prohibits the student from living or being a guest in any university or campus housing. In the case of dismissal from housing, the student is required to pay room and board charges for the remainder of the term during which the dismissal takes effect.

Suspension from Housing
A temporary suspension from university housing, which prohibits the student from living or being a guest in any university or campus housing and from entering into a new housing contract for the duration of the suspension. Requests for new housing contracts after a suspension are handled by the dean of students or his/her designees; a new student housing contract will be permitted only if the student is able to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the dean or his/her designees that the student will not engage in any further violations of the Student Code of Conduct, and that all other conditions of the suspension, if any, have been met and all sanctions have been completed. As with dismissal from housing, the student will be responsible to pay room and board charges for the remainder of the term during which the suspension takes effect.

Suspension of Privileges
A suspension of privileges, which prohibits the student from participating in specified activities (such as intercollegiate or intramural athletics, campus events, extracurricular activities, student life activities, student leadership positions, student clubs or organizations, etc.) or from entering certain university buildings or facilities (such as residence halls, dining centers, university fitness or athletic facilities, certain administrative or academic buildings, parking garages/ lots, etc.) or other areas of the university during the period of the suspension.

Interim Suspensions
An immediate, temporary suspension that remains in effect until the Conduct Review Process has been completed. An interim suspension can be a suspension from the university, from housing, from a classroom, from an academic course, lab, practicum, and/or a suspension of privileges. Interim suspensions are used when the university perceives that because of the nature of the alleged violation or other factors, an interim suspension is advisable to help protect an individual or the university community, property or the normal operations of the university until the Conduct Review Process has been completed. Since the university may, at the request of a student who is facing both Student Conduct and criminal proceedings for the same violation, delay the Conduct Review Process while the criminal proceedings take place, an interim suspension may also be used until that student’s criminal proceedings have been completed.

Conduct Probation
A student who receives a sanction of conduct probation will, at a minimum, be suspended from the university if the student is found responsible for the same or for a similar violation of the Student Code of Conduct while on conduct probation.

Conduct Warning
A warning given to the student, which indicates that additional sanctions will be imposed if the student engages in future violations of the Student Code of Conduct.

Fines/Fees
Monetary penalties, which must be paid by the date specified when the sanction is given.

Restitution
The purpose of restitution is to make good or compensate the university for loss, damage or injury. Restitution can take the form of a monetary payment, the repair or replacement of damaged property, or participation in a campus or community work or service project. Restitution must be completed by the date specified when the sanction is given.

Letters of Apology
Letters of apology must be submitted to Student Conduct, and Student Conduct may forward them to the appropriate parties. Letters of apology must be submitted by the date specified when the sanction is given.

Campus/Community Service
Campus/community service includes providing services to the university or to a recognized nonprofit agency of the student’s choice for a specified number of hours or for a particular work or service project. Campus/community service must be completed by the date specified when the sanction is given.

No Contact Order
A no contact order is a requirement to avoid another person or persons and not have any direct or indirect contact with such person(s), including email, text messages, mail, telephone, instant messaging, face-to-face contact, social media interactions or any contact through a third party. A no contact order requires the student to take action to avoid encounters with the other person(s). In cases where a no contact order impacts class, lab or work activities, the student should notify the student’s professors and/or supervisors to address any situations that may conflict with the No Contact Order. A no contact order may also be imposed as an interim action while a case is pending. If a student fails to abide by the no contact order, the student may be placed on interim suspension from the university.

Housing Relocation
Required relocation to another room within the university housing system.

Educational Sanctions
In addition to other sanctions, a student found responsible for violating the Student Code of Conduct may be assigned educational sanctions, such as: required attendance at an educational program relevant to the violation for which the student was found responsible, reflective/research papers, classes, seminars, interviews, presentations, projects and/or other creative sanctions. Educational sanctions must be completed by the date specified when the sanction is given.

whether they have been married or have lived together, or if persons who are or have been in a substantive dating or engagement relationship within the past one year which shall be determined by the court’s consideration of the following factors:

1. the length of time of the relationship;
2. the type of the relationship;
3. the frequency of the interaction between the parties.

(c) “Protective order” means an order issued pursuant to § 15-5-19, chapter 15 of title 15, or chapter 8.1 of title 8.

(d) “Victim” means a family or household member who has been subjected to domestic violence.

Stalking
R.I. Gen. Laws § 11-59
§ 11-59-2 Stalking prohibited. – (a) Any person who: (1) harasses another person; or (2) willfully, maliciously and repeatedly follows another person with the intent to place that person in reasonable fear of bodily injury, is guilty of the crime of stalking.

(b) Stalking shall be deemed a felony punishable by imprisonment for not more than five (5) years, by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or both.

Consent
Consent, in reference to sexual activity, is not defined by statute in Rhode Island. However, lack of consent due to force or incapacitation is an element of the crime of sexual assault.
MASSACHUSETTS STATE LAWS

Sexual Assault:
Indecent Assault and Battery: MGL c.265, s.13h
Section 13H. Whoever commits an indecent assault and battery on a person who has attained age fourteen shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than five years, or by imprisonment for not more than two and one-half years in a jail or house of correction.
Whoever commits an indecent assault and battery on an elder or person with a disability, as defined in section 13K, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than 10 years, or by imprisonment in the house of correction for not more than 21/2 years, and whoever commits a second or subsequent such offense shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than 20 years. A prosecution commenced under this paragraph shall not be placed on file nor continued without a finding.
Rape: MGL c.265, s.22
Section 22. (a) Whoever has sexual intercourse or unnatural sexual intercourse with a person, and compels such person to submit by force and against his will, or compels such person to submit by threat of bodily injury and if either such sexual intercourse or unnatural sexual intercourse results in or is committed with acts resulting in serious bodily injury, or is committed by a joint enterprise, or is committed during the commission or attempted commission of an offense defined in section fifteen A, fifteen B, seventeen, nineteen or twenty-six of this chapter, section fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen or eighteen of chapter two hundred and sixty-six or section ten of chapter two hundred and sixty-nine shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life or for any term of years.
No person serving a sentence for a second or subsequent such offense shall be eligible for furlough, temporary release, or education, training or employment programs established outside a correctional facility until such person shall have served two-thirds of such minimum sentence or if such person has two or more sentences to be served otherwise than concurrently, two-thirds of the aggregate of the minimum terms of such several sentences.
(b) Whoever has sexual intercourse or unnatural sexual intercourse with a person and compels such person to submit by force and against his will, or compels such person to submit by threat of bodily injury, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than twenty years; and whoever commits a second or subsequent such offense shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life or for any term or years.
Whoever commits any offense described in this section while being armed with a firearm, rifle, shotgun, machine-gun or assault weapon, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than ten years. Whoever commits a second or subsequent such offense shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life or for any term of years, but not less than 15 years.
No person serving a sentence for a second or subsequent such offense shall be eligible for furlough, temporary release, or education, training or employment programs established outside a correctional facility until such person shall have served two-thirds of such minimum sentence or if such person has two or more sentences to be served otherwise than concurrently, two-thirds of the aggregate of the minimum terms of such several sentences.
For the purposes of prosecution, the offense described in subsection (b) shall be a lesser included offense to that described in subsection (a).

Dating Violence and Domestic Violence:
Massachusetts law does not define the crimes of “dating violence” or “domestic violence”.
However, state law defines the crime of “abuse” in G.L. c. 209A § 1 as: “the occurrence of one or more of the following acts between family or household members:
(a) attempting to cause or causing physical harm;
(b) placing another in fear of imminent serious physical harm;
(c) causing another to engage involuntarily in sexual relations by force, threat or duress.”
“Family or household members” is defined as: “persons who
(a) are or were married to one another;
(b) are or were residing together in the same household;
(c) are or were related by blood or marriage;
(d) having a child in common regardless of whether they have ever married or lived together; or
(e) are or have been in a substantive dating or engagement relationship, which shall be adjudged by district, probate or Boston municipal courts consideration of the following factors:
   1. the length of time of the relationship;
   2. the type of relationship;
   3. the frequency of interaction between the parties; and
   4. if the relationship has been terminated by either person, the length of time elapsed since the termination of the relationship.”

Stalking:
Stalking is defined under G.L. c. 265, § 43 (a) as follows:
“Whoever (1) willfully and maliciously engages in a knowing pattern of conduct or series of acts over a period of time directed at a specific person which seriously alarms or annoys that person and would cause a reasonable person to suffer substantial emotional distress, and
(2) makes a threat with the intent to place the person in imminent fear of death or bodily injury, shall be guilty of the crime of stalking . . . The conduct, acts or threats described in this subsection shall include, but not be limited to, conduct, acts or threats conducted by mail or by use of a telephonic or telecommunication device or electronic communication device including, but not limited to, any device that transfers signs, signals, writing, images, sounds, data or intelligence of any nature transmitted in whole or in part by a wire, radio, electromagnetic, photo-electronic or photo-optical system, including, but not limited to,
electronic mail, internet communications, instant messages or facsimile communications.”

Consent:
Consent in reference to sexual activity, is not defined by statute in Massachusetts. The lack of consent is an element of the crimes indecent assault and battery and rape.
EMPLOYEE SEXUAL ASSAULT AND RELATIONSHIP VIOLENCE POLICY

Johnson & Wales University prohibits sexual assault and relationship violence, which may include dating violence, domestic violence, stalking and sexual exploitation. These offenses constitute violations of university policy, including the Prohibited Discrimination and Harassment (including Sexual Harassment) Policy and the Student Code of Conduct. These offenses can also constitute violations of State and Federal Laws. The university provides proceedings and resources for community members affected by sexual assault and relationship violence (see Getting Help), and offers programming designed to educate the community and prevent the occurrence of such offenses (see Education and Prevention). The Sexual Assault and Relationship Violence Policy for Students is located in the Student Handbook.

Definitions

Dating violence means violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the reporting party’s statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. Dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or threat of such abuse. Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.

Domestic violence means crimes of violence committed
• by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim;
• by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common;
• by a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the victim as a spouse or intimate partner;
• by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred; or
• by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.

Sexual assault means any sexual act directed against another person, by force, threat of force, coercion or without consent, including instances where the person is incapable of giving consent. Sexual assault includes rape, fondling, incest and statutory rape.

Fondling means the touching (with a hand or any other part of the body) of another person’s clothed or unclothed sex organs, breasts, groin, buttocks or anus for the purpose of sexual arousal, sexual gratification or abuse, without consent of the person, including instances where the person is incapable of giving consent. Fondling also includes being forced to touch (with a hand or any other part of the body) another person’s clothed or unclothed sex organs, breasts, groin, buttocks or anus, without consent, including instances where the person is incapable of giving consent.

Consent means conduct that signifies through words or behaviors that the parties have indicated agreement to engage in sexual activity.
• Past consent does not imply future consent.
• Silence or absence of resistance, by itself, does not imply consent.
• Consent to engage in sexual activity with one person does not imply consent to engage in sexual activity with another.
• Consent can be withdrawn at any time.
• Coercion, force or threat of force invalidates consent.

Coercion means express or implied threats of any harm that would place a reasonable individual in fear of immediate or future harm and that is employed to make someone engage in sexual activity.
Force means the actual use or threat of physical violence that is employed to make someone engage in sexual acts.

Incapable of giving consent means that because of the person's age or because of the person's temporary or permanent mental incapacity they cannot give intelligent, knowing and voluntary consent.

Incest means sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.

Rape means the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person without consent, including instances where the person is incapable of giving consent.

Statutory rape means sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

Sexual exploitation means taking sexual advantage of another individual's nudity or sexuality without consent and includes

- causing, or attempting to cause, the incapacitation of another person in order to make that person vulnerable to sexual acts;
- recording or photographing of private sexual activity and/or an individual's intimate parts (including genitalia, groin, breasts or buttocks);
- dissemination, streaming or posting of recordings, photos or other images of an individual's sexual acts and/or intimate parts (including genitalia, groin, breasts or buttocks);
- voyeurism (watching or taking pictures, videos or audio recordings of another person engaging in sexual acts);
- allowing third parties to observe private sexual acts;
- knowingly or recklessly exposing another person to a significant risk of sexually transmitted infection or virus; and/or
- exposing one's genitals to another individual.

Stalking means a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to

- fear for the person's safety or the safety of others; or
- suffer substantial emotional distress.

Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly or through third parties, by any action, method, device or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person's property.

Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim.

Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

If there is reason to believe that Johnson & Wales University’s rules prohibiting sexual assault and relationship violence have been violated, either on or off campus, the administration may pursue disciplinary action through the university’s Conduct Review Process for students, Human Resources for employees, and/or through any other available proceedings.

In considering these offenses, the university will, if required by law, refer to the laws of Rhode Island, Florida, Colorado, North Carolina and/or Massachusetts.

EDUCATION AND PREVENTION

Johnson & Wales University takes a proactive stance to educate its community regarding issues of sexual assault and relationship violence, including retaliation, and methods of prevention.

Johnson & Wales University’s education and prevention programming includes programs, initiatives, strategies, and campaigns intended to address sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking. These programs are both in person and online.
In addition, the programs are a mix of guest speakers, university staff members, externally-created programs and university-created programs.

For students, education about sexual assault and relationship violence awareness and prevention begins at new student orientation, where new students and their parents participate in sessions dedicated to illustrating Johnson & Wales University’s stance against sexual assault and relationship violence. New Student Orientation staff members are trained to handle issues of sexual violence and relationship violence and participate in programming designed to help students understand university expectations and policy, the intersection between alcohol, sexual assault and relationship violence, and ways to reduce the risk of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking. As part of the education on risk reduction, programming explores options designed to decrease perpetration and bystander inaction, and to increase empowerment for victims in order to promote safety and to help individuals and communities address conditions that facilitate violence.

Students also learn about safe and effective forms of bystander intervention to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence or stalking. Bystander intervention means safe and positive options that may be carried out by an individual or individuals that proactively promote safe and respectful interactions before the precursors to harm are ever witnessed. Bystander intervention includes recognizing situations of potential harm, understanding institutional structures and cultural conditions that facilitate violence, overcoming barriers to intervening, identifying safe and effective intervention options, and taking action to intervene. Examples of bystander intervention include:
• walking someone home
• distracting the parties by engaging in conversation with them
• involving others, including the friends of the parties
• inviting one of the parties to go get a glass of water or redirect their attention
• calling Campus safety & security
• providing someone with information on university policies and resources, including providing them with a copy of this Sexual Assault and Relationship Violence Policy.

To promote a safe and engaged community, the university addresses bystander behavior by participating in Green Dot as a core component of its comprehensive violence prevention efforts. Each campus has Green Dot certified staff members. These individuals promote safe and effective bystander intervention through presentations and training. Each term community members have the opportunity to participate in an eight-hour bystander intervention training program.

Prevention and education efforts continue throughout the year and are supported by multiple departments such as Student Involvement & Leadership (including student clubs and organizations, fraternities and sororities), Residential Life and Athletics. These efforts are targeted at awareness raising, self-defense, alcohol use, definition of consent, healthy sexuality and relationships, risk reduction and bystander behavior. The university provides education through its “Consent is….” campaign, which educates students about the university’s policies related to sexual assault: the definition of consent: the intersection between alcohol, sexual assault and relationship violence; where to obtain resources: and where to report violations.

Literature addressing issues of sexual assault and relationship violence is available from multiple departments including Campus Safety & Security, Counseling Services, Health Services, Health Education, the Gender Equity Center, Student Involvement & Leadership, Athletics, Residential Life and the Title IX Coordinator.

Many of the educational programs and events offered to students are open to all community members, and employees have the opportunity to participate in a variety of educational programs. In addition, employees are offered programming on the Prohibited Discrimination and Harassment (including Sexual Harassment) Policy, and the Sexual Assault and Relationship Violence Policy. These programs inform employees of the university’s stance against sexual assault and relationship violence and the university’s prohibition against retaliation.

For information regarding sexual assault and relationship violence awareness and prevention programming, contact the Title IX Coordinator or the director of the Gender Equity Center. For more information about Green Dot contact the director of the Gender Equity Center. Upcoming programs can also be found on JWULink and the student calendar.

STEPS TO FOLLOW IF AN OFFENSE OCCURS

If you believe you are the victim of sexual assault or relationship violence (including dating violence, domestic violence, stalking or sexual exploitation), you are encouraged to take the following steps:

1. Go to a safe place.
2. You may seek medical attention. Immediate medical attention is strongly encouraged for any possible injuries. Medical attention is critical so that any injuries (including internal injuries) or infections which may have resulted from the offense can be treated. Getting an exam does not mean that you have to press charges; however, a medical exam will help to preserve evidence if you should choose to press charges or seek a protective order at some point.

Time sensitive steps: Some actions are more effective or only may be taken within a few days after a sexual offense. You may wish to consult with medical personnel quickly regarding these items:

- Preventative treatments for pregnancy and sexually transmitted infections
- Evidence collection
- Toxicology testing if there are signs that drugs or alcohol may have facilitated the assault/violence

Individuals of any gender can be victims of sexual assault or relationship violence. JWU encourages victims to go to the appropriate hospitals for their campus listed in Getting Help.

3. Consider your reporting options. Your options include

- reporting the offense to law enforcement authorities by dialing 911 or contacting the appropriate police at the numbers listed in Getting Help. Campus authorities will assist you with notifying law enforcement authorities, if desired; and/or
- filing a disciplinary complaint and reporting the offense to the university for investigation by Campus Safety & Security (see Getting Help for your campus information):
  - For incidents where a student is the respondent (accused party), your options include » reporting the offense directly to Campus Safety & Security or the Title IX coordinator;
    » reporting the offense confidentially to Campus Safety & Security (silent witness, online only);
    » reporting the offense to a Residential Life staff member (such as your R.A. or R.D.);
    » reporting the offense to the university's Title IX coordinator, deputy Title IX coordinators or nondiscrimination campus liaisons; and/or » reporting the offense to any of the other organizations or departments listed in Getting Help.
  - For incidents where a university employee is the respondent (accused party), your options include:
    » reporting the offense to the university’s Title IX coordinator, deputy Title IX coordinators or nondiscrimination campus liaisons; and/or
    » reporting the offense to any of the other organizations or departments listed in Getting Help.
Johnson & Wales University strongly urges students and employees to report criminal offenses to local police and Campus Safety & Security so that the university can take appropriate measures to provide help to the victim and prevent future crimes. However, you have the right not to report the matter.

4. Consider steps to preserve and record evidence. If you wish to press charges or seek a protective order, it is important to preserve and record evidence, including recording a description of the perpetrator (including type of clothing, race, age, height, weight, hair color, eye color, distinguishing marks, etc.), details of events, where events occurred and the direction of travel of any vehicle involved. Best practices to preserve evidence with respect to sexual offenses include seeking medical attention shortly after the event and
   - avoid washing anything (including your hands, mouth and face)
   - avoid washing or combing your hair
   - avoid showering, going to the bathroom, brushing your teeth, eating, drinking, douching or changing your clothes. It is recommended that you bring an extra set of clothes with you to the hospital.

   You may also consider preserving other relevant information such as communications from the perpetrator (i.e., social media posts, emails, texts or other materials). If you do change or have access to other materials like sheets or blankets present during the assault/violence, those materials can be brought to the hospital or given to law enforcement for evidence collection. Please use a paper bag, not plastic bag, if you choose to transport any of these materials on your own.

5. You may seek free confidential counseling services or referral. You can obtain free confidential counseling assistance or referral whether or not you file a report:
   - Students: Contact Student Counseling Services directly (see Getting Help for your campus information as well as assistance available in the community)
   - Students: Without disclosing any details of the incident, ask a Residential Life staff member or Campus Safety & Security to contact the on-call counselor. Campus Safety & Security will also provide you with written information about university counseling resources.
   - Employees: Employee Assistance Program. This program provides employees the opportunity to obtain a referral and access professional and confidential counseling services for help in dealing with issues that may be causing difficulties at home or at work. It also provides referrals for child care, elder care, financial and legal services. Contact Coastline EAP at 1-800-445-1195 or online at www.coastlineeap.com.

6. You may seek assistance regarding obtaining interim or protective measures at the university, including no contact orders and changes to university academic, living, student financial aid, visa and immigration, working, and transportation situations, regardless of whether you choose to report the crime to local law enforcement. Campus Safety & Security, the Title IX coordinator, a Deputy Title IX coordinator or a nondiscrimination campus liaison will provide you with written information about university and community resources for changing situations or addressing needs.

7. You may also wish to create a safety plan with the assistance of people and organizations listed as offering this service under Getting Help.

8. You may seek an order of protection, a court-ordered no contact order, a restraining order or similar lawful orders from a court. Please note that the local police are responsible for the enforcement of these items and not Campus Safety & Security, but Campus Safety & Security will provide you with assistance. When an allegation of sexual assault or relationship violence is made against a student, that student will receive a university issued “no contact” order, which will remain in effect until at least the Conduct Review Process has been completed.
9. You may seek additional help, counseling, advocacy, legal assistance and other assistance. People and organizations offering these services are listed under Getting Help.

REPORTING OFFENSES TO THE UNIVERSITY
Johnson & Wales University strives to be supportive and accommodating for all victims of sexual assault and relationship violence. University representatives will make every effort to help in these ways:

1. We will meet with you privately at a place of your choice on campus to take a statement, explain your options and provide you with a written list of rights and resources.
2. We will treat information that you share with the highest level of discretion.
3. CONFIDENTIALITY: We will do our best to honor your request to maintain confidentiality, provided your request does not interfere with our obligation to provide a safe, non-discriminatory environment for the community.
   • The university's crime log will not include identifying information about the complainant to the extent permissible by law.
   • Please be advised that if we honor a request to maintain confidentiality, our ability to meaningfully investigate the incident and pursue disciplinary action against the respondent may be limited.
   • Any accommodations or protective measures provided to you will be kept confidential, to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality will not impair the ability of the university to provide the accommodation or protective measures.
   • If we cannot honor your request to maintain confidentiality, we will inform you and, to the extent possible, only share information with people responsible for handling our response to the incident.
4. We will not prejudge you.
5. We will treat you and your particular situation with courtesy, sensitivity, dignity, understanding and professionalism.
6. If you feel more comfortable talking with either a counselor or representative of a specific gender, we will do our best to accommodate your request.
7. We will assist you in arranging for any hospital treatment or medical needs.
8. We can assist you in privately contacting local law enforcement officials, counseling, Campus Safety & Security, advising and other available resources, both on campus and in the community as set forth in Getting Help.
9. We will fully investigate your report with respect and discretion.
10. We will continue to be available for you — to answer your questions, explain the systems and processes involved, and be willing listeners.
11. We will consider your report seriously, without bias based on a protected category.
12. We will provide written notification of rights and options, including interim and protective measures.

GETTING HELP
After a sexual assault or an incident of dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, sexual exploitation and/or retaliation, there are many options. Understanding and choosing between these options can feel confusing and overwhelming. You are not alone. Information, support and resources are available on and off-campus to help members of the Johnson & Wales community. The university provides a list of organizations and departments by campus that offer or arrange for immediate support and response, including arrangements for emergency services, if needed; transportation to medical resources; contact with local authorities; information regarding criminal and civil proceedings and/or the university's Student Conduct Review Process or Human Resources procedures, as appropriate; advocacy services; referrals/advice about university and community counseling services; and assistance with personal safety concerns. The university will assess and, if necessary, implement interim and long-term protective measures. These may include, but are not limited to, escorts, changes in housing or class schedules for students, no-contact orders and changes in supervisor or work location for employees and student employees. Many of these resources are available to respondents as well. Community members are encouraged to seek assistance and locate resources that are right for them.

WHAT ACTION MAY BE TAKEN
1. Criminal Prosecution: If you choose to pursue criminal prosecution through the courts, the incident should be reported to the police. Remember, a police report does not require a victim to prosecute and campus personnel are available to assist you when notifying the police. Please see Getting Help for sources of assistance for victims when moving through the prosecution process.
2. University Disciplinary Action: If you choose to report the matter to the university, the incident should be reported to Campus Safety & Security, the Title IX coordinator, or Human Resources. Please see Getting Help for contacting Campus Safety & Security and Human Resources. Sexual assault and relationship violence (including dating violence, domestic violence, stalking and sexual exploitation) are violations of the university's Sexual Assault and Relationship Violence Policy, the Prohibited Discrimination and Harassment (including Sexual Harassment) Policy, the Student Code of Conduct, as well as state and federal law, including Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX). Sexual assault and/or relationship violence alleged to have been committed by students are addressed through the university's Conduct Review Process and, as applicable, in accordance with Title IX and relevant state and federal law. Please see the Conduct Review Process for more information about the rights of parties related to complaints of sexual assault and relationship violence. Possible sanctions for a violation of the Student Code of Conduct are set forth in Sanctions.

Sexual assault and relationship violence alleged to have been committed by employees are addressed through Human Resources and, as applicable, in accordance with Title IX and relevant state and federal law. Possible sanctions for a violation of the Employee Code of Conduct regarding sexual assault and relationship violence range from additional training to termination of employment.

When any one of the options above is pursued, you do not forfeit your right to pursue the remaining options. Compliance with the items listed above does not constitute a violation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (20 U.S.C. 1232g).

RIGHTS OF THE COMPLAINANT AND EMPLOYEE-RESPONDENT (THE “PARTIES”) FOR COMPLAINTS OF SEXUAL ASSAULT, SEXUAL EXPLOITATION, DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND STALKING
For complaints of sexual assault, sexual exploitation, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking alleged to have been committed by an employee, the parties will have the following rights in connection with the examination of the complaint by Human Resources:
• The right to an investigation and resolution that is prompt, fair and impartial from the initial investigation to the final result as required by applicable law

• The right to a proceeding conducted by unbiased university officials who receive annual training on issues related to sexual harassment, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking and how to conduct an investigation
• The right to a proceeding that protects the safety of the parties and promotes accountability. University officials use the “more likely than not” standard to evaluate alleged violations
• The right to be accompanied to the proceeding by an advisor of their choice. The advisor may accompany the party, but may not participate in any manner during the proceeding
• The right to bring any relevant materials and witnesses with personal, relevant knowledge of the incident to the proceeding
• The right to be informed in writing of the outcome of the proceeding, including when such results become final. This includes disclosure to the parties of any sanction imposed that pertains to a sex offense and any sanction imposed that directly relates to the complainant with respect to other alleged sexual harassment violations. The parties do not need to submit a request for such information. In addition, for any crime of violence, the university will, upon written request and in accordance with applicable law, disclose to the complainant all sanctions imposed against the respondent. If the complainant is deceased as a result of the crime of violence, the outcome of the proceeding and sanctions will be provided to the complainant’s next of kin if so requested.

The university will take steps to prevent the recurrence of any harassment, correct any discriminatory effects on the complainant and others, and implement protective or interim measures as requested and as required by law. The university will complete the examination of the complaint within a reasonably prompt time frame, usually within sixty days, but will allow for the extension of time frames with written notice to the complainant and respondent of the delay.

Johnson & Wales University prohibits retaliation, including intimidation, threats, coercion or discrimination, against any individual who has made a good faith complaint, who has cooperated as a witness or a complainant in the investigation of such a complaint, or who has participated as a witness or complainant in any university proceeding. Any person found to have engaged in retaliation, or to have encouraged others to engage in retaliation, will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment or dismissal from the university.

DRUGS AND ALCOHOL
The following statement constitutes Johnson & Wales University’s policy regarding drugs and alcohol on campus:

In accordance with the Federal Drug-Free Workplace Act and Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act, Johnson & Wales University prohibits the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession or use of narcotics, drugs, other controlled substances or alcohol at the workplace and in the educational setting. Possession or use of alcoholic beverages anywhere on university property is prohibited except for legal use at events, operations, programs, premises or facilities sanctioned by the university. Unlawful for these purposes means in violation of federal, state or local statutes, regulations or ordinances. Workplace is defined as either university premises or any place where university business is conducted away from university premises. Educational setting includes both university premises and approved educational sites off campus.

Possession or use of illegal drugs, narcotics or drug paraphernalia is absolutely forbidden. Johnson & Wales may impose sanctions on students and employees for violations of this policy up to and including dismissal, termination of employment and/or referral for prosecution. Johnson & Wales is not and cannot be considered a protector or sanctuary from the existing laws of the local, state and/or federal government.

Residents of Renaissance Hall, Harborside Village, Washington Apartments, Centennial House and The Cove who are age 21 years or older who have signed a “Special Agreement Regarding Residents of Renaissance Hall, Harborside Village, Washington Apartments, Centennial House and The Cove Ages 21 or Older” and participated in a required university alcohol workshop may possess and use alcoholic beverages in their own apartment/room in accordance with the Special Agreement and applicable laws. The Special Agreement sets forth detailed requirements for such residents, including approved types of alcohol, the amount of alcohol permitted per resident and rules on hosting guests.

Alcohol is not permitted to be possessed or used by any other residents of Renaissance Hall, Harborside Village, Washington Apartments, Centennial House and The Cove who do not meet such requirements. Alcohol is not permitted in the other residence halls regardless of a student being of legal drinking age.

A violation of this policy by a student constitutes a violation of the Student Code of Conduct. Disciplinary sanctions which may be imposed on a student’s violation of this policy include, but are not limited to: reprimand, revocation of certain privileges, campus service, conduct probation, deferred suspension, suspension, or permanent dismissal from the university and/or university housing and referral to alcohol education classes.

To ensure that all incoming students are aware of the alcohol and drug laws of the state of Rhode Island, an outline of Rhode Island penalties for drug and alcohol-related offenses is included in the Student Handbook.

All employees of the university, as a condition of employment, must also agree to abide by the terms of this policy. In addition, all employees must notify the university of any criminal drug statute conviction for a violation occurring in the workplace no later than five days after such conviction.

As a reminder of the university’s policy, a copy of the drug-free policy statement is distributed to each faculty and staff member once a year.

Substance Abuse Prevention: Given the problems associated with consumption of alcohol or drugs, Johnson & Wales offers a variety of assessment and prevention programs for students. The university provides students with a short, educational program on alcohol/substance abuse. One section of the program contains a substance abuse presentation.

Johnson & Wales has a mandatory alcohol course for any student who is age 21 or older and would like to use alcohol in residential facilities sanctioned by the university.

Support Group for Alcohol Abuse: Alcoholics Anonymous meetings are offered in the area. See www.rhodeisland-aa.org/meetings for meeting information.

Substance Abuse Programs: Several programming initiatives and alternatives are available to help students examine their own behavior related to alcohol and other drugs (AOD):

• Counseling Services provides an assessment of AOD usage for all students who seek counseling.
• Referrals to community resources are available for individuals with more long-term or complex needs. A number of AA/NA/Al-Anon groups hold meetings close to campus and in the larger local community.
• Counseling and Health & Wellness offer AOD prevention through programming efforts with various student groups and Student Affairs departments.
• Counseling and Health & Wellness also collaborate with Student Conduct to provide educational and other resources for students with problematic drinking behavior and drug use.

- A number of programming initiatives take place each year.

CRIME STATISTICS

Crime statistics for Johnson & Wales University are prepared by Campus Safety & Security. Johnson & Wales University compiles its crime statistics using the uniform crime reporting system of the Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Investigation, including any modifications pursuant to the Hate Crime Statistics Act and the Violence Against Woman Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA). Please note that the university's crime statistics include not only crimes that have been reported to state and local police authorities, but also crimes reported to campus security authorities which may not have been reported to the police (for example, minor violations of the Student Code of Conduct or crimes where the victim chooses not to press criminal charges).

The primary source for Johnson & Wales University's statistics is reports received by the university's Campus Safety & Security. All crimes involving university students, personnel, and/or property are required to be reported to Campus Safety & Security. Other individuals who have significant responsibilities for student and campus activities are also surveyed. If these individuals disclose any crimes that may not have been reported to Campus Safety & Security, the crimes are also included in the crime statistics.

Finally, the crime statistics include crimes that have occurred in or on noncampus buildings and property owned or controlled by Johnson & Wales University or by an officially recognized student organization, as well as on public property (including thoroughfares, streets, sidewalks, and parking facilities) that is adjacent to and accessible from the campus. The university requests information on these crimes from local police agencies for inclusion in the crime statistics whether or not they were previously reported to campus security authorities.

MISSION & GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Johnson & Wales University ...an exceptional education that inspires professional success and lifelong personal and intellectual growth.

In support of our mission and recognizing the importance of preserving our unique student-centered culture we will be guided by the following principles:

- Undertake continuous improvement and planning for a sustainable future
- Foster a teaching-focused university that encourages appropriate scholarship and offers relevant programs that maximize student potential
- Enrich our academic programs with experiential and work-integrated learning
- Be cost-conscious in our endeavor to provide an affordable private university education and be a good steward of our resources
- Embrace diversity for a richly inclusive community
- Model ethical behavior and local, national and global citizenship
- Value our faculty and staff by investing in their quality of life and professional development
- Provide facilities, technology and other resources to meet the needs of students, faculty and staff

* This category includes all on-campus incidents, including those listed in the category below, “in dormitories or other residential facilities.” Therefore, the two categories are not cumulative, but duplicative.
WHAT TO DO IN CASE OF:

Fires
- Activate the nearest fire alarm pull station.
- Call 911 and Campus Safety & Security at 401-598-1103.
- Notify other building occupants.
- Help those needing assistance to leave the area.
- Confine the fire by closing doors as you exit.
- Evacuate the building at the nearest exit.
- Go to your rally point and stay with your class.
- Do not re-enter the building until authorized to do so by emergency personnel.

Building Evacuation Procedures
- When the fire alarm is activated, evacuation is MANDATORY.
- Do not use elevators.
- Take personal belongings with you.
- Shut off stoves and ovens in kitchens and culinary labs.
- Close doors as you exit.
- Move away from the building to your rally point or a safe area.

Shelter-in-Place
- Suspend all activities.
- Proceed immediately to an interior room or if available, a designated shelter-in-place location for the building.
- Do not use elevators.
- Close all windows and doors and ensure that all HVAC systems and elevators are shut down.
- Remain calm.
- Stay in the shelter area until otherwise instructed by university personnel or the authorities.

Active Shooter/Lockdown
- If possible, exit the building and call 911 and Campus Safety & Security at 401-598-1103.
- If you cannot exit, clear the hallway immediately and/or remain behind closed doors in a locked or barricaded room.
- Stay away from windows and lock them, if possible.
- Shut off lights and close blinds and shades.
- Remain calm and quietly call 911 and Campus Safety & Security at 401-598-1103.
- Leave the room only when authorities have arrived and instructed you to do so.
- Do not leave or unlock the door to see what is happening.
- Do not attempt to confront the hostile intruder unless as a last resort.
- Do not assume someone else has called 911 or Campus Safety & Security.

Suspicious Behavior/Persons of Concern
- Do not physically confront the person.
- Do not let anyone into a locked room or building.
- Do not block a person’s access to an exit.
- Call Campus Safety & Security at 401-598-1103.

Suspicious Packages
- Do not touch or disturb the object or package.
- Evacuate the area immediately.
- Call Campus Safety & Security at 401-598-1103.
- Notify your professor, RD, RA or other university administrator.

Weather Emergencies
Call the Alert Information Line at 401-598-5555 for class cancellation and other emergency information

In an emergency, call 911 and Campus Safety & Security at 401-598-1103.
Medical
Cardiac Arrest or Heart Attack
- Assess the scene for danger.
- Check the victim.
- Call or instruct someone to call 911 and Campus Safety & Security at 401-598-1103.
- Locate an Automatic External Defibrillator (AED), if one is available.
- Perform CPR if trained and willing to do so.

Bleeding
- Apply firm but gentle pressure to the wound with a clean cloth or tissue.
- Have the person lie down.
- Call 911 and Campus Safety & Security at 401-598-1103.

Burns
- Remove the cause of the burn.
- Flush the area with water.
- Do not apply a dressing, creams or lotions.
- Call 911 and Campus Safety & Security at 401-598-1103.

Hazardous Materials Spills
If the incident is indoors, close all doors in order to isolate the area, if it is safe to do so.
- From a safe area call Campus Safety & Security at 401-598-1103.
- Be prepared to provide the following information:
  - Name and quantity of the material
  - Time and location of the incident
  - If anyone is injured or exposed to the material
  - If fire or explosion is involved
  - Your name, phone number and location
- Evacuate if necessary.

Bomb Threats
- Remain calm.
- Get as much information as possible.
- Call 911 and Campus Safety & Security at 401-598-1103.

Gas Leaks, Fumes & Vapors
If you smell natural gas
- Do not pull the fire alarms.
- Do not touch light switches or electrical equipment.
- Go to a safe place and call Campus Safety & Security at 401-598-1103.
- Clear the area immediately if instructed to do so.
- Provide your name, phone number and location along with the location of the odor.
- Provide as many details as possible.

Flooding
Flooding can occur due to major rainstorms, water main breaks or loss of power to sump pumps. In case of imminent or actual flooding:
- If you can do so safely
  - Secure vital equipment, records and hazardous materials.
  - Shut off non-essential electrical equipment.
  - Move all people to a safe area away from the building in danger.
- Call Campus Safety & Security at 401-598-1103.
- Do not return to the building until instructed to do so by Campus Safety & Security or Facilities.

The university plans for future improvements in fire safety, if determined necessary by the institution.

Fire Drills — Calendar Year 2014
Providence, R.I.
• 101 fire drills were held during calendar year 2014 at various residential facilities.

Smoking Policy
Smoking is strictly prohibited in all campus facilities. This includes, but is not limited to, common work areas, classrooms, conference and meeting rooms, private offices, elevators, hallways, stairs, restrooms, vehicles and all other enclosed facilities.

Emergency Procedures
Note: For campus-specific procedures, please go to Public Folders under All Public Folders>_Emergency Procedures>Providence Campus>JWUEmergency Plan and Procedures.

Effective emergency response requires the coordinated efforts of staff, faculty and students. Each member of the JWU community should be prepared to act promptly when faced with an emergency. This includes knowing the following:

• Evacuation routes, exit points and rally points; where rally point leaders, or their designee(s), will attempt to take an accounting (roll call) of employees, students, guests and visitors, after evacuation.
• When and how to evacuate a building.
• Locations of emergency supplies and materials, such as fire extinguishers, pull alarms and first aid kits.
• Proper procedures for notifying emergency responders about an emergency in your building or work area.
• Potential exposures to hazardous materials or processes in and around your work area, as well as any means of protecting yourself in the event of an emergency.
• Proper procedures for location-specific emergencies (i.e. snowstorm, hurricane, ice storm, etc.).
• Campus emergency contact phone numbers.
Emergency Evacuations

In the event of evacuation, campus procedures shall be followed as closely as possible. Evacuations may be the correct course of action in some instances, and direction in these cases will be provided by the incident commander, his/her designee and/or a local emergency services agency.

If the decision is made to evacuate one or more university buildings:

• Stay calm, do not rush, and do not panic.
• Safely stop your work. If time permits and it is safe to do so, shut off all computers, copy/fax machines, cooking equipment including ovens, stoves, fryolators, etc.
• Gather your personal belongings if it is safe to do so (Reminder: take prescription medications out with you if at all possible.)
• No one shall remain in the building and no one shall re-enter the building without the authorization of the incident commander or the responding emergency services agency.
• Upon exiting the building, students, faculty and staff should report to the designated rally point. See the table(s) in the appropriate campus plan for the list of evacuation procedures and rally point locations.
• Once at the rally point, students, faculty and staff shall remain at the rally point unless otherwise directed by university or emergency response personnel. Students, staff and faculty MUST check in with their rally point leader or building manager to attempt to provide an account of occupants to the incident commander. The incident commander must be notified if students, staff and/or faculty have not successfully evacuated or are missing.

Evacuation Procedures for People with Disabilities

• Evacuate people with disabilities if possible.
• DO NOT use elevators, unless authorized to do so by police or fire personnel.
• If the situation is life threatening, call 911.
• Check on people with special needs during an evacuation. A “buddy system” where people with disabilities arrange for volunteers, alert them and assist them in an emergency, is a good method.
• Attempt a rescue evacuation ONLY if you have had rescue training or the person is in immediate danger and cannot wait for professional assistance.
• Always ask someone with a disability how you can help BEFORE attempting any rescue technique or giving assistance. Ask how he or she can best be assisted or moved, and whether there are any special considerations that need to come with that person.

For campus-specific procedures, please go to Public Folders under All Public Folders>Emergency Procedures>Providence Campus>JWU Emergency Plan and Procedures.

Training and Exercises

Training and exercises are an integral part of the university’s emergency response program. The level and type of training received by each individual will vary according to that individual’s responsibilities within the program. The training shall be developed and provided by the appropriate departments or external agencies.

It is the responsibility of each (building) occupant to become familiar with general evacuation procedures, and to know the evacuation routes and assembly areas that are listed in the emergency plan. Faculty and staff shall also attend training(s) given by their department leads on an annual basis.

Conducting drills is essential for assessing emergency plans and procedures, for determining the readiness of emergency responders for resolving questions of coordination and clarifying roles and responsibilities, and for promoting awareness of potential hazards. In addition to drills, tabletop exercises shall be conducted periodically with various response team members as a less involved technique for evaluating specific aspects of the emergency response program. These exercises will be developed and coordinated by the Crisis Management Team, and will seek to include external community members and government emergency service providers.

Whenever feasible, observers from within JWU and from outside agencies should be present throughout the drill to analyze and evaluate each component of the response, and to make recommendations as needed.

Maintenance of the University Emergency Management Plan

The University Emergency Management Plan will be subject to ongoing changes (and improvements) based on the results of actual events, post-exercise drills and activities, and input from units and departments tasked in the plan. There shall be an annual review process; however incremental changes, modifications and adjustments to the plan will be made as conditions change. The Emergency Operations Team shall be responsible for documenting the training of staff and for retaining that documentation.

FIRE SAFETY INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS

Fire Safety Rules

Residence hall fire exits and fire escapes (if present) are to be used in the event of actual emergency conditions and must be kept clear of obstacles and impediments at all times. Fire escapes (if present) are off limits except during emergencies. Violators are subject to fines and disciplinary action.

Fire alarms and extinguishers are placed in residence halls for your safety and that of other residents. You are reminded that use of the equipment, except in the case of fire, jeopardizes the safety of all residents, subjects the violator to fines and disciplinary action (up to and including dismissal from the university), and constitutes a serious criminal offense under the laws of the state.

You must exit the building whenever a fire alarm sounds, during routine fire drills and when illegal or unauthorized use of this equipment has occurred. Fire drills are conducted periodically in each residence hall.

Residence Hall — Fire/Explosion Evacuation Procedures

- The person who discovers a fire should pull the fire alarm and leave the immediate area.
- All building occupants should evacuate the building via the nearest safe exit upon sounding of the fire alarm. If the primary route is blocked by fire, the secondary route should be used.
- DO NOT RUN.
- DO NOT use elevators for evacuation.
- Once outside, occupants should proceed to their building’s designated rally point.
- When an alarm is sounded in a residence hall, reception area personnel shall call Campus Safety & Security.
- Every effort will be made for R.A.s/R.D.s, or other assigned person(s), to knock on the doors of the rooms on their floor to alert residents to evacuate the building. Reception area personnel will also take the guest check-in book and residence list before leaving the building unless there is fire or smoke in the immediate area.
- Once occupants arrive at their rally point, students shall report to their R.A./R.D. or other assigned person(s) if they are exiting from a residence hall, or their professor if exiting from a classroom. University employees shall report to their supervisors.
- Residence hall staff shall attempt to account for all occupants and ask questions as necessary to determine if all students have left the building.
- The highest-ranking Campus Safety & Security staff member at the site shall attempt to account for all occupants. Residence hall staff, professors and supervisors shall notify Campus Safety & Security of any missing persons. Campus Safety & Security will report any missing occupants to the fire department.

- The student/employee who discovers the situation and begins the evacuation shall contact Campus Safety & Security (at the rally point) to give the location and type of fire (oil, paper, etc.). As a back-up, once Campus Safety & Security is contacted, they will notify the fire department of the alarm situation.
- Upon fire department arrival, the highest ranking Campus Safety & Security employee and the student/employee who discovered the fire shall report the location and type of fire and any missing occupants.
- Campus Safety & Security (or the incident commander) shall contact an ambulance and hospital if students/employees are injured.
- The fire department will notify Campus Safety & Security when it is safe to re-enter the building. Campus Safety & Security will then inform R.A.s/R.D.s, professors and employees of their decision.

For campus-specific Evacuation Procedures, please go to Public Folders under All Public Folders>Emergency Procedures>Providence Campus>JWU Emergency Plan and Procedures. University emergency management and fire safety training programs are available to students via jwuLink. Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures are also available on the jwuAlerts page at http://www.jwu.edu/alerts/find-alerts/providence/

Prohibited Items in Residence Halls

The following items are not allowed within JWU residence halls due to existing Johnson & Wales University policy, fire safety laws, and federal, state and local laws. Possession of any of the following items may result in seizure and/or destruction of the item(s) by a university representative and may result in student conduct action. This list is subject to change without notice.

- Alcoholic beverages and containers, including empty and decorative ones; wine glasses, margarita glasses, martini glasses and shot glasses (possession or use of alcohol is not permitted anywhere on university property, except for legal use at events, operations, programs or facilities sanctioned by the university).
- Narcotics, drugs (including alternative drugs such as synthetic THC and prescription medications that are not in your name) and drug-related items (including hookahs) or items perceived to be for drug use. Refer to the university's Drug and Alcohol Policy for more information.
- Firearms (including realistic replicas of firearms), weapons (including realistic replicas of weapons), including, but not limited to knives with a blade over 3 inches (excluding university-issued culinary knife kits), brass knuckles and swords; ammunition (not limited to live ammunition), including shell casings, and related paraphernalia, BB guns and air guns are prohibited. Refer to the university's Firearms Policy for more information.
- Flammable liquids, chemicals of any kind, combustible decorations, explosive materials, and other similar materials, except for sealed containers not exceeding one-ounce capacity
- Fire/open flame materials or unapproved high-heat producing devices, including, but not limited to, candles, lanterns, incense, incense burners, halogen lights/ lamps, lava lamps, camping stoves, fireworks, firecrackers, hookahs, neon signs, rope lights, charcoal grills and sunlamps.
- Gasoline, kerosene and other fuels.
- Wall/ceiling tapestries, flags, or other wall or ceiling coverings.
- Mopeds, motorcycles, scooters and other similar vehicles including gasoline-powered toys or mini bikes are prohibited. Bicycles may not be kept in hallways, stairwells, or public areas inside the residence halls.
• Additional furniture (without prior approval of the residence director).
• Large power tools, air conditioners, open-coil appliances, heaters.
• Cooking equipment including, but not limited to: immersion heaters/coils, pottery water-warmers, ovens, hot plates, blenders, fryers, grills (including George Forman grills), toaster ovens/toasters, hot pots, fry pans, stoves and exposed burners (including popcorn poppers without self-contained heating units), griddles, crock pots, blenders, mixers, food processors, dehydrators.
• Microwaves unless part of an approved MicroFridge® unit or in a suite/apartment that has a kitchen.
• Personal refrigerators larger than 2.9 cubic feet (1 refrigerator per room is permitted and must be Energy Star rated; it cannot be in addition to MicroFridge rentals.)
• Oversized radios or speakers.
• Pets (except fish in a bowl or tank under five gallons — only one per room, suite or apartment). For the 2015-16 academic year, Residential Life will also pilot small pet-friendly communities in Harborside Village F and Washington Apartments for upperclassmen and on the first floor of Snowden Hall for first-year students. Types of animals permitted will be dogs* (up to 40 pounds and at least 1 year old), domestic cats (over 1 year old), small caged mammals limited to guinea pigs, hamsters and rabbits (cage no larger than 16 sq. ft.). No more than one approved pet per person is allowed. *Restricted breeds: Pit bulls, Akitas, German Shepherds, any wolf hybrid, or any breed not permitted by city or county ordinances. See FAQs for more details.)
• Unlawfully obtained street, traffic and construction signs.
• Antennas or wires extending outside room windows.
• Satellite devices (i.e., Direct TV).
• Items that may affect the safety or security of the residence hall.

Student Code of Conduct
Conduct that violates the Student Code of Conduct includes (but is not limited to)
• Use of physical force or violence.
• Threatened use of physical force or violence.
• Dating violence or domestic violence.
• Fighting (physical or verbal).
• Endangering or threatening health or safety.
• Intentional possession of a dangerous article or substance which may be used to injure or cause discomfort to any person.
• Possession or use of firearms or other weapons, ammunition, BB guns, air guns, fireworks, incendiary devices, or explosives or other items that resemble a firearm.
• Initiating or circulating a report or warning of an impending bombing, fire, or other crime, emergency, or catastrophe, knowing that the report is false.
• Intentionally or recklessly starting a fire.
• Misuse of or tampering with fire safety equipment (e.g. fire extinguishers, smoke detectors, exit signs and pull stations).
• Hazing (see the university’s Hazing Policy)
• Aiding, abetting, encouraging, or participating in a riot, commotion, or disturbance, or other disorderly conduct.
• Possession of weapons, including, but not limited to, knives with a blade of three inches or longer (excluding university-issued culinary knives), brass knuckles, swords and items that resemble a weapon.
• Animal abuse or neglect.

If Student Conduct assigns a charge of dating violence, domestic violence or stalking the university is required by law to inform the Complainant in the matter of the outcome of the Conduct Review Process.

(See the Student Handbook posted at catalog.jwu.edu/handbook for additional information regarding the Student Code of Conduct.)

Residence Hall Safety Rules

Do not

- sit on window ledges or climb in and out of windows
- place objects on window ledges
- leave your door unlocked
- leave valuables unsecured
- use roofs, awnings or balconies
- cook in residence halls (with the exception of approved areas)
- use athletic equipment in halls, common areas or rooms
- hang items on sprinklers
- check in or sponsor visitors you do not know

Residence hall fire exits and fire escapes (when present) are to be used in the event of actual emergency conditions and must be kept clear of obstacles and impediments at all times. Fire escapes (when present) are off limits except during emergencies. Violators are subject to fines and disciplinary action.

Fire alarms and extinguishers are placed in residence halls for your safety and that of other residents. You are reminded that use of the equipment, except in the case of fire, jeopardizes the safety of all residents, subjects the violator to fines and disciplinary action (up to and including dismissal from the university) and constitutes a serious criminal offense under the laws of the state.

You must exit the building whenever a fire alarm sounds, during routine fire drills and when illegal or unauthorized use of this equipment has occurred. Fire drills are conducted periodically in each residence hall.

Residence Hall Safety Inspections and Room Searches

Johnson & Wales University reserves the right to key-in and search bags (upon entry), residence hall rooms, MicroFridges, refrigerators, room safes and packages at any time for fire, health and safety hazards, for prohibited items and for maintenance and inventory reasons.

The university also reserves the right to inspect and search residents’ rooms in the event that a violation of the Student Code of Conduct occurs or is believed to have occurred. Resident Assistants will perform routine health and safety inspections of students’ rooms each term. Room searches are conducted by members of Campus Safety & Security.

Smoking and Fire Safety

1. All areas of all residence halls are smoke-free including rooms, bathrooms, common areas such as lounges, hallways, laundry rooms, entryways and outside the building near room windows.
2. If smoking outside, please observe all smoking restriction signs as these help to reduce or eliminate cigarette smoke from entering campus buildings/resident rooms.
3. Please use the proper receptacles to dispose of cigarettes properly.
4. Do not throw cigarettes in mulch as it can cause the mulch to catch on fire.
5. Do not throw a cigarette in a trash can, as it could ignite combustible items (paper, etc.) inside the can.
6. Room doors must be kept free of flammable materials, particularly loose paper. Doors cannot be wrapped or covered with flammable materials. Dry erase boards are the only items allowed to be posted on the outside of doors. Any items posted on the inside of doors must not obstruct view of the path of egress signs or peepholes.
7. Electrical outlets must be appropriately used and electronic equipment (computers, stereos, televisions, hair-styling tools, etc.) must not overload circuits or be improperly wired or have damaged wiring to create a safety hazard.

8. High-heat generating items such as curling irons, clothes irons and hair dryers should never be left on or unattended while plugged in. In addition, these items should be monitored until they have cooled to avoid potential fire hazards. These appliances should only be used for their designed purpose.

9. Decorations must not overload electrical circuits and, if appropriate, must be fireproofed in accordance with environmental health and safety standards.

10. Fire pull box alarms and extinguishers are placed in the residence halls for your safety and the safety of others. Misuse of this equipment is a serious criminal offense under state laws. In addition, it jeopardizes the safety of all residents and violators will face disciplinary action by the university (up to and including dismissal from the university.)

11. Students must exit the building whenever a fire alarm sounds, during routine fire drills and when illegal or unauthorized use of this equipment has occurred. (Be sure to take your JWU ID with you so that re-entering the building is orderly.) Residential Life staff will direct you to a safe location once you are out of the building. Drills will be performed periodically to ensure that all residents are aware of fire exits.

12. Residents are required to keep belongings out of the main walkway and doorway to the room. By keeping the room tidy, residents can ensure that a clear path of egress is always available in the event of an emergency or drill.

13. Residence hall fire escapes are to be used in the event of actual emergency conditions and must be kept clear of obstacles and impediments at all times. Fire exits and escapes are off limits except during emergencies. Violators are subject to fines and disciplinary action.

The following actions are prohibited:

1. Tampering with any fire safety equipment, including, but not limited to, fire alarms, fire extinguishers, fire hoses, exit lights, smoke detectors, and sprinkler systems (this is a serious criminal offense under state laws).

2. Propping open fire doors or exterior doors of residence halls.

3. Unauthorized entry to areas of residence halls, including, but not limited to, roofs, window ledges, balconies, offices and dining halls.

4. Failing to vacate the residence hall when directed to do so by residence hall staff, emergency staff, or the sounding of a fire/smoke alarm (this violates state laws).

5. Improper use of kitchen/ cooking facilities.

6. Blocking hallways with furniture or personal belongings.

7. Tampering with or damaging mobility and hearing impaired equipment (e.g., door knockers, bells, lights, door arms, etc.).

8. Removal or blocking of door peepholes.

For other guidelines on items which are prohibited due to fire safety regulations refer to the Residential Life Guide to On-Campus Living.
