SUSTAINING THE ENVIRONMENT
JWU has revitalized close to 100 acres of waterfront alongside the Harborside Campus through significant brownfields remediation efforts. Improvements include shoreline reconstruction, an Urban Coastal Greenway, athletic fields, and the donation of a six-acre waterfront parcel for an environmentally “smart design” educational and research center dedicated to the protection of Narragansett Bay and marine life.

The Cuisinart Center for Culinary Excellence, Grace Welcome Center and Center for Physician Assistant Studies have been awarded LEED® Gold certification by the U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC) for energy and material use and for incorporating a variety of other sustainable strategies.

TUITION (2017–18)
Undergraduate Tuition: $31,158

FINANCIAL AID (2016–17)
JWU is committed to making a quality education as accessible and affordable as possible, increasing institutional aid every year for the past five years. More than 94 percent of Providence Campus students receive institutional scholarships and/or grants from the university, often times making JWU tuition significantly less than many other universities. Pell grants were awarded to 37 percent of the undergraduate students enrolled at the Providence Campus.

EXPERIENTIAL EDUCATION
JWU’s educational approach is designed to help students identify a field of interest and acquire the knowledge, skills and experience to excel in that field. Our unique education model integrates academics and professional skills, related work experiences, community and leadership opportunities and career services. Students develop academic schedules and work experience plans relevant to their career goals, starting in their first term.

Our experiential education model includes career management workshops, a suite of career services, a customized online career management website, work experience tied to a field of study and on-campus recruitment opportunities.

JWU maintains relationships with hundreds of the world’s industry-leading companies and offers a variety of work experience programs. In 2015–16, 2,243 Providence campus students gained industry experience related to their major.

In 2015–16, 753 companies participated in the on-campus career conference, allowing students to connect with leading companies in their field.

In 2015–16, 1,313 on-campus interviews were conducted.
